

Johnson Says Mission Is to Strong Points

By ROY ESSOYAN
HONG KONG (AP) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson arrived today for a 24-hour rest from his Asian tour, which he described as "a mission to the strong points of freedom in Asia."

In a brief airport speech on his arrival from Formosa, Johnson praised this British colony on the China's doorstep as "a show window of the free way of life in Asia."

Sir Robert Black, governor of the colony, greeted Johnson and his wife, Lady Bird, at the airport.

Suntanned and in high spirits, Johnson looked like a tourist visiting this tourist mecca of the Far East. Mrs. Johnson was chic in a yellow frock.

Johnson said he was stopping here "both for a rest and for some very necessary staff work regarding the balance of our mission."

The vice president presented the governor a copy of President Kennedy's Pulitzer prize winning book, "Profiles in Courage."

There was none of the colorful popular outpouring in Hong Kong that marked the welcomes for Johnson at his three earlier stops, South Viet Nam, the Philippines and Formosa.

There had been little advance publicity on Johnson's visit. Hong Kong's Communist papers ignored the visit.

Anti-Communist and other papers praised Johnson's visit and urged him to take back to the United States a picture of the Communist threat to Southeast Asia.

Hong Kong is a 400-square mile enclave on the coast of Communist China and its politically sensitive government discourages political demonstrations. Johnson's visit here has been described as strictly unofficial. He plans no formal calls, speeches or news conferences. A tight ride around Hong Kong's scenic harbor is the only item listed on his program.

Johnson and his party of 32 will leave Tuesday for Thailand. In Taipei, Formosa, Johnson gave National Chinese President Chiang Kai-shek a new pledge of U.S. support and economic aid and assurance that the Kennedy administration has no intention of recognizing Red China.

World Pays Tribute to Gary Cooper

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—The body of Gary Cooper lay in a mortuary chapel today as the world paid tribute to his greatness.

Rosary will be recited tonight for the 60-year-old star, who lost his fight with cancer Saturday. Tuesday his friends among the waning ranks of Hollywood greats will file into the Church of the Good Shepherd in Beverly Hills for the funeral.

The shock of his passing was not lessened by the fact that it had been known for a month that he was dying. As the news swept around the world, it evoked words of appreciation for the lanky Montanan who personified the American hero.

Pope John XIII cabled a message of sorrow to Cooper's widow and daughter. The British Broadcasting Corp. telecast a 15-minute tribute to the actor. "We feel like we've lost our best friend," said the movie critic of the Tokyo Shomoun.

The Washington Post editorialized Cooper "came to be a symbol of the vigor, courage and heroism in American life."

The London Times devoted 800 words to Cooper, calling him "the all-American hero."

16 Persons Meet Death Violently

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sixteen persons died violently in Arkansas in the week ending at midnight Sunday, including six in shootings and four in traffic accidents.

Three drowned and one was electrocuted, one was hit by a train and one was killed in an industrial accident.

Morris Sykes Jr., 5, of North Little Rock, a Negro was injured fatally Sunday when struck by a Missouri Pacific passenger train in the North Little Rock Mo-Pac yards.

Police said an unidentified white physician got off the train and revived him for a brief time by mouth-to-mouth respiration, but the boy was dead on arrival at a hospital.

Terry Rutledge, 15, was killed Saturday when he ran into the path of a car as he sought to retrieve a ball which had bounced onto a highway near Arkadelphia.

He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Thomas Rutledge of Arkadelphia.

Powell A. Kunkel, 65, of Cave City, was found shot to death in a field 2½ miles north of Cave City Saturday. A coroner's jury ruled death accidental and said an investigation showed Kunkel was killed when a shotgun he was carrying went off.

Erselce Johnson, 16, Negro of Osceola, drowned Saturday while fishing in the overflow of the Mississippi River near Osceola. A companion swam to safety after their boat overturned.

His body was recovered.

Woman's Body Taken From Water

HARRISON, Ark. (AP) — Searchers Sunday found the body of Mrs. J. C. McCutcheon, 74, who disappeared when the May 7 Crooked Creek flood washed away her home here.

The body of her 77-year-old husband was recovered last Tuesday. Mrs. McCutcheon's body was found two miles from where the home was located. Carl Nichols of Western Grove, Ark., McCutcheon's brother, identified the body after it was found among debris and lumber in an old Missouri and Arkansas Railroad yard.

Four persons died in the flood which caused more than $10 million damage. The bodies of Sherman Smith and Troy Paul were recovered when the floodwaters subsided.

A large number of tourists drove through the Harrison area Sunday to view the flood damage. Several businessmen said they would reopen today, many in temporary quarters. Plate glass was being installed and much painting was going on over the weekend.

National guardsmen planned to remain on duty through today. Some Civil Defense units left Sunday. The State Police reduced its force here Sunday night.

City water still is used only for bathing. Drinking water is being brought by truck from nearby towns.

Court Told the Omnibus Bill Violates Law

By JOHN R. STARR

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—Attorney Eugene Warren told the Arkansas Supreme Court today that Gov. Orval E. Faubus' $14.5 million omnibus construction law violates the Arkansas constitution on five counts.

This was disputed by Chief Assistant Atty. Gen. Jack Holt Jr. and William J. Smith, Faubus' personal lawyer and author of the law, who followed Warren in arguments to the court.

They said the law is valid and urged the court to affirm Pulaski Chancellor Guy E. Williams.

Williams said the act is constitutional because it appropriates only surplus funds.

Warren, in his oral argument before the Supreme Court, said the law failed to meet constitutional requirements because it: 1. Appropriates for more than one subject; 2. delegates legislative power; 3. fails to make specific appropriations; 4. diverts revenue levied for one purpose to another purpose; and 5. diverts money from the public school fund to other funds.

Warren said an $800,000 appropriation for the University Medical Center was the most glaring example of delegated authority.

He said the bill gives the State Construction Board power to decide whether the center needs the money.

"This bill makes 33 separate and different appropriations," Warren said. "Why didn't the Legislature just pass 33 separate bills? The only reason I can think is that 33 separate bills might have been hard to pass."

Arguments that the bill is legal because it only concerns surplus funds, Warren said, "even surplus funds are subject to the plain wording of the constitution about appropriations being for one subject only."

Reds Warn of Revival of A-Tests

GENEVA (AP) — The Soviet government said today it might have to resume testing nuclear and hydrogen weapons unless the United States and Britain get France to abandon its testing program.

The assertion was contained in a formal statement the Soviet delegate, Semyon K. Tsarapkin, read into the record of the deadlocked nuclear conference at its 305th session.

"The Soviet Union has repeatedly stated that the French tests complicate the reaching of an agreement" on a worldwide suspension of nuclear weapons testing, the statement said. "This may force the Soviet Union to resume testing of nuclear and hydrogen bombs."

Tsarapkin asked U.S. negotiator Arthur H. Dean and Sir Michael Wright of Britain to forward the Soviet statement to their governments.

He repeated charges he made March 21 that the French were in effect conducting tests on behalf of the two Western powers who have observed a moratorium on weapons tests since these talks began more than 2½ years ago.

Laos Group Balks at Any Compromise

BULLETIN

GENEVA (AP) — Britain and Russia announced tonight the 14-nation conference on the future of Laos will open Tuesday after four days' delay.

By LOUIS NEVIN

GENEVA (AP)—The opening of the 14-nation conference on Laos was delayed again today as rival Laotian delegations balked at a big power compromise plan designed to get the talks going.

All three competing factions from Laos rejected British Foreign Secretary Lord Home's proposal that they come to the conference table as observers, not as full negotiating members.

The three groups represent the pro-Western Laotian government, the pro-Communist Pathet Lao rebels and their allies, Prince Souvanna Phouma's self-styled neutralists.

Phoumi Vongvichit of the Pathet Lao declared his forces were "the masters of the country" and would not be relegated to the subordinate role. He added that any decision the conference made without participation of the Pathet Lao would be invalid.

The head of Souvanna Phouma's mission asserted, "We would not come as observers in the ordinary sense of the word, that is, as people who can only look on." The Pathet Lao, the Soviet Union, Red China and Souvanna Phouma all contend that he heads the only legal Laotian government.

A royal government spokesman said his group could not accept the plan because the full delegation has not yet arrived in Geneva. He also contended that a cease-fire actually is not in effect in Laos because Pathet Lao artillery is attacking a village held by Meo tribesmen loyal to the royal government.

Rusk and Gromyko agreed Sunday to Lord Home's compromise, and for a time the conference was scheduled to open this afternoon. Then the Laotians balked. The various delegations in Geneva began contacting their governments at home for new instructions.

As the big powers conferred back and forth and the other delegations marked time, all were keeping an eye on negotiations going on in Laos that have as their ultimate goal formation of a coalition government representing the three Laotian factions. Agreement there would permit appointment of one Laotian delegation for the Geneva conference and thus solve the present problem.

However, the talks in the rebel-held Laotian village of Ban Nakhone, 75 miles north of Vientiane bogged down in a dispute between the Pathet Lao and the royal government over what should be discussed first.

official. A special showing of "High Noon" was scheduled. Re-

Even the Communist press paid tribute. In Paris, the Humanite disappears." The major Yugoslavian daily, Borba, said: "Gary death because he was one of the best of the great film creators."

Spent with cancer, Cooper died at 12:27 p.m. Saturday. "He had

Work of DAR Related by State Regent
The outstanding accomplishments of the Arkansas Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, were related to the Mire Creek and John Cain Chapters
by the State Regent, Miss Lily Peter, at a joint meeting in The Old Tavern in Washington, Ark.
Wednesday, May 10.
Miss Peter, who is also a well known writer and speaker in the Mid-South, told of the accomplishments of the Arkansas Society for the past year. "For the first time in the history of the Arkansas D.A.R., the State Good Citizen, Sandra Smith, of Hall High School, Little Rock, won the national award of Good Citizen."
Her essay was written on the theme, "Of What Avail, If Freedom Fail." Miss Smith was invited to read her paper at the D.A.R. National Congress when it met in Washington D.C. in April. It was singularly complimentary that a student from Little Rock be recognized as the nation's Good Citizen of all high school senior girls in the United States.
The State Society also won six Junior American Citizen Awards, the American History Award, which went to Tina Nolan of El Dorado, and a citation for work in Americanism.
Emphasizing the opportunities the Daughters of the American Revolution offers its members in the individual contributions they may make due to the widespread program of the organization, Miss Peter stressed a four point plan which the Arkansas Society will work toward during the next year.
Membership—Always a prime objective, the Arkansas Society will try to surpass the 60-member increase of the past year. To facilitate securing the necessarily required data for membership, the services of two full time genealogists, working in the D.A.R.
Genealogical Library, will be at the disposal of prospective members.
Junior American Citizen — Having won 6 honors at the D.A.R. National Congress, the Arkansas Society will work to again excel in this project. The purpose of these J.A.C. clubs is to instill ideals of citizenship and home in all students, with special emphasis placed on those students whose opportunity for developing such ideals is limited.
The State Society offers cash awards for achievement in the clubs. Teachers also are offered an award of $25 for the best plan in teaching citizenship.
Foreign Languages Back in Public Schools — With the world so closely related, a better means of communication and a more thorough understanding of other peoples is realized by those who can connect lingually. It is a matter of self-preservation for our country that our students have the workable means of exchanging ideas with other countries, acquired more easily through the study of Latin, French, and Spanish. It is a strong link in our national defense.
Writing of Local History — For the recording of events and the color of local personalities, each member is asked to write a few pages of local history or a vignette, perhaps of family interest, thus preserving something of value for posterity.
Miss Peter concluded with the plea that Americanism be promoted at all times. So varied is the chance to show the qualities of real America that every living citizen can participate in this effort to portray patriotism for our country.
From The Old Tavern the group went to the Block-Catts House where they enjoyed this beautifully restored house and became better acquainted with Miss Peter during the tea hour.
Roses of a delicate pink hue were prominent in the decorations throughout the house, and accentuated in a lovely Dresden comple centering the tea table and complimented by a three-branch matching candelabra. The Regents from the two participating chapters, Mrs. Arthur Wimmel and Miss Virginia Buxton, held the places of honor in pouring for the guests.
Mrs. J. A. Wilson invited the guests into the home and introduced them to the receiving line to meet hostesses, Mrs. Walter Keith and Miss Daisy McClerkin of Stephens, Mrs. G. D. Bilberry of Jackson, Miss, Mrs. E. D.
Dobson of Garland, and Mrs.
Lloyd Spencer, and Mrs. Charles Haynes; Honorary State Regent, Miss Peter; State Regent, and Mrs. Dick Watkins, State Generalist.
Mrs. George Peck, Vice Regent
of John Cain, Mrs. Pink Horton, Mrs. Fred Norwood, Mrs. Joe
Booker, Mrs. Margaret May, Mrs.
A. A. Keel and Mrs. Paul Dudley graciously extended hospitality while Mrs. Lucille Carrigan, at a lovely antique piano, played southern melodies during the tea hour.
In 1939, Arkansas ranked fourth among peach - growing states of the nation.

The lot of a drive-in theater at Pocahontas. The storm damaged the theater but apparently hit nothing else. Tyler said he thought the storm was a tornado. He was working at the theater at the time.

"It was black and it was coming at me," he said, "so I jumped in that pickup truck and took off."

About 1.5 inches of rain hit Pocahontas at about the same time the windstorm or tornado — hit the drive-in, south of town.

Light damage was reported by similar storms near Stuttgart, Holly Grove and Postell in east Arkansas.

C. E. Roswell, who lives 17 miles south of Holly Grove on state Highway 17, said a tornado funnel went over his house, damaging it, and also caused damage to the nearby Donald Dearing farm.

He said the funnel did not touch the ground, but accompanying winds damaged his house.

Postell, a community east of Holly Grove, reported some damage but no injuries from apparently the same storm.

A thunderstorm with high winds hit the Stuttgart area, knocking over four electric poles northwest of town and smashing a barn belonging to Leon Bauman south of the city.

Thunderstorms were reported in several sections of the state.

Orders Probe of Stock Exchange

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission today ordered an investigation of the American Stock Exchange, the second largest in New York City and the nation.

The decision on the inquiry grew out of an SEC investigation of Jerry and Gerard Res, two American Exchange specialists who were banished from Wall Street by the commission on charges of rigging stock prices and illegal stock sales.

In announcing the new inquiry, the SEC said it will look into the "rules, policies, practices and procedures of the American Stock Exchange concerning the regulation and conduct of specialists and other members."

The commission said it will also investigate the role of exchange members in distributing to the public stocks traded on the exchange.

The entire inquiry will be conducted in private, but witnesses will be under oath. The SEC then will have to determine whether it should issue a public report on its findings.

Officials said the investigation might cause the SEC to recommend new legislation or rules governing stock exchanges.

That candy can be of help when you're dieting may sound strange. But it's true. If you're careful about the amount, it can both satisfy your craving for something sweet and give you a quick energy pick-up. Hostess uses composite of assorted candies (left) as pretty edible centerpiece to serve with coffee. She uses the side bend from the waist (center) to trim bulges while she's dieting. A single chocolate covered peppermint with her afternoon coffee break (right) contains only 30 calories and provides quick energy. The idea is not to decide to finish the whole box.

Soldier Fears Dream Girl will be AWOL

By HELEN WORDEN ERSKINE

Dear Helen: I am a Canadian soldier who has found the girl he wants by his side for life. Being in the Army Service Corps I shall be on the march. My first father is also in the Army and now posted in Egypt. He is not allowed to have his family with him. I am 18, my girl 15. We cannot marry for another three years. If we are separated I know she will find another. How can I hope to retain her interest and love? I am 2,200 miles from home now but this newspaper follows me wherever we are stationed. I take it mainly for your column. Please help me. I am sick with worry. —K.

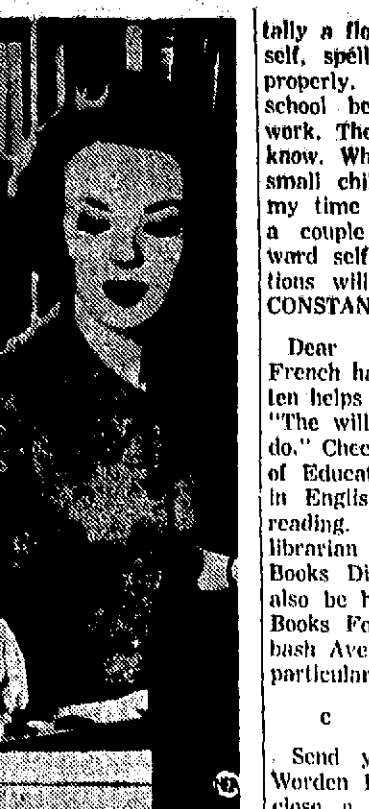

Dear K.: All girls respond to attention. Write yours daily, if only a postcard. Send her little presents. Assume she is already part of your life. Have your family write her or, if she lives near them, look her up. Don't jump off the dock if you fail to get her undivided attention. No 15-year old adolescent, however mature physically, is yet capable of steadfast, mature love. But take comfort in that old adage, "Love begets love." Your stock-in-trade is self-confidence. Don't lose it.

Dear Helen: I am the mother of three girls, 16, 11 and 8. I worry terribly about their future. My husband won't take any life insurance, believing he will live forever. What if he suddenly died or we were both killed at the same time? We have a nice home, clothes and food, but no life insurance for the girls. My husband and I see eye to eye on everything but that. Maybe he's just pretending to care for us; otherwise why doesn't he give us the assurance that we'll at least have enough to bury him? I work but a funeral bill would be too much for me. I would pay the premiums myself but my husband just doesn't want insurance. What should I do? —WORRIED

Dear Worried: Job said, "That which I feared has come upon me." If you don't stop nagging your husband about having his life insured, he will die before his time. As a compromise, start a savings account into which you both pay the equivalent of insurance premiums. Money which draws interest is in itself an insurance.

Dear Helen: I am 40 and men-

Science Shrinks Piles New Way Without Surgery Stops Itch—Relieves Pain

New York, N. Y. (Special) — For the first time science has found a new healing substance with the astonishing ability to shrink hemorrhoids, stop itching, and relieve pain — without surgery. COOL is the way people should be, drip-dry is for clothing. So when you think of cooling for your home, think of Flameless Electric Cooling. Through its real humidity control, you never have a feeling of being too muggy or too damp, just a feeling of springtime comfort that lasts all through summertime. If your home has a duct system already in it, it's simple to install the Flameless Electric air conditioning unit right in your attic or basement. And remember this: the only water involved in Electric Cooling is the gallon or so it removes from the air every day to keep down humidity! Air conditioning is one of many jobs electricity does better and more economically.

Newcomers Take Over Speedway

INDIANAPOLIS (AP) — Brash newcomers have taken the place of four veterans killed since starting in the 1960 Memorial Day auto race.

There were six rookies among the 27 drivers who made 10-mile qualifying runs over the weekend for the golden anniversary 500-mile May 30.

Parnelli Jones, of Torrance, Calif., almost unbeatable on the Midwest high bank tracks last season, was fastest of the first-time qualifiers at 146.033 miles an hour.

Jack Brabham of Australia, defending world road racing champion and a champion intercontinental commuter, was second best of the "rookies" at 145.144 in a tiny English Cooper Climax.

Jones is 27 and Brabham 35. The other first-time qualifiers are A. J. Shepherd, 32, Gardena, Calif.; Bob Rose, 36, Houston, Tex.; Bob Cleberg, 32, Tucson, Ariz., and Norm Hall, 35, Los Angeles.

They'll be at a definite disadvantage against 21 other qualified drivers who have averaged five Memorial Day starts.

Eddie Sachs Center Valley, Pa., only 33 but veteran of four speedway starts, won the pole position in Saturday's opening session at 147.481 miles an hour in a Dean Special.

Central Wins Big Nine Track Meet

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Little Rock Central ran, jumped and tossed to an overwhelming team victory Saturday in the annual Big Nine Conference track and field meet.

Central's Fred Rath set a 6-4 1/2 record in the high jump and the Tigers scored 74 5-6 points, second highest total in state meet history.

Fort Smith had 31 1/2. El Dorado 15. Little Rock Hall 14 1/2. Texarkana 14. North Little Rock 11. Pine Bluff 2. Hot Springs 1 1/2 and Blytheville 0.

David Dick of Fort Smith won both hurdles events and set a record of 14.2 in the highs. He and Rath were bitter rivals in those events and Dick beat Rath in the low hurdles by a scant two inches. It was so close, two of the five judges called it a tie. The time was 19.7.

Victor Harville of Texarkana finished second to Dick in the highs, with Rath third.

Central won the 880 and mile relays and might have set a meeting record but for a baton-drop in the 440 relay. The Tigers had posted the best time in the state in that event, but didn't finish.

Fort Smith won it in 44.5 seconds. Central got one — two finishes from Mike Snipes (22-2) and Bill Knight in the broad jump and from Dany Steele and Ronnie Bateman in the mile.

Mike Hoffman, Central's sophomore sprinter, won the 100-yard dash in 10.1 and the 220 in 22.9. Tommy Maddox of Central won the 440 in 50.9 and Clyde Cook of the Tigers took the half mile in 2:02.3.

John Thomas of Texarkana won the discus with a throw of 135-5. Griff Keyes of Little Rock Hall took the shot put with a 48-11 1/2 heave.

Darrell Ward of Central and Larry Adams of Texarkana tied for first place in the pole vault at 12 feet.

Central took the 800 relay in 1:30.1 and the mile relay in 3:30.2.

Khrushchev, and Kennedy Meet Talked

By DOUGLAS S. CORNELL

PALM BEACH, Fla. (AP) — A Kennedy-Khrushchev conference on corrosive cold-war problems has become a definite possibility. The chances that one will be held; and held soon, are rated currently at 3 to 2.

But the grave issues of Laos and a valid ban on nuclear arms tests could turn out to be formidable barriers. In contrast, quick progress toward solutions could do much to assure a conference.

President Kennedy may extend a visit to Europe, which starts May 31, and stay on for his first meeting with Soviet Premier Khrushchev if things work out as they now appear likely to do. Either Stockholm or Vienna is regarded by the United States as a suitable site for the President and Premier to meet face to face across the conference table.

At the moment, it was learned, a meeting definitely is under consideration but no firm decision has been reached. That may come within a week.

Prospects that the leaders of the world's two greatest powers may consult produced both hearty endorsements and words of caution from various leaders in Washington.

Here in Palm Beach, Pierre Salinger, White House press secretary, bombarded by questions about reports that efforts to arrange a Kennedy-Khrushchev meeting were under way, told reporters he could say only, "There are no plans for any such meeting at present." He refused to read any significance into the phrase "at present." But it was there. Kennedy himself, closing out a relaxing five days on beaches and golf courses, was completely silent.

The President is known to be tremendously concerned that in the four months since he took command of government, East-West negotiations for an agreement forbidding nuclear weapons tests have deadlocked instead of making any real progress. These deadlocked negotiations are under way still in Geneva. So are efforts to bring a solution to the Laotian problem out of a 14-nation conference of Communist bloc and anti-Communist countries.

The Soviet premier had suggested previously that he would like to meet Kennedy. He said so soon after

Braves Walk in Run to Give Giants a Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A walk to pinch hitter Maltby Aloi with the bases full in the ninth inning forced home the run that gave the San Francisco Giants an 8-7 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

The victory, coupled with Chicago's 10-8 triumph over Los Angeles in 11 innings enabled the Giants to open up a full game lead over the Dodgers in the tight National League race.

Cincinnati beat Pittsburgh 4-1 and Philadelphia defeated St. Louis 6-4 in the other league games Sunday.

In the American League, New York swept a doubleheader from Detroit 5-4 in 11 innings and 8-6. Cleveland defeated Baltimore twice, 1-0 in 15 innings and 6-4. Chicago beat Kansas City 6-1 in the first game but the A's won the second 5-3. Minnesota edged Los Angeles 4-3.

The Cubs snapped an eight-game losing streak, scoring two runs in each of the eighth, ninth and 11th innings to overcome an 8-4 deficit. Earlier, they had trailed Don Drysdale 5-0. Don Elston, in relief picked up his fifth triumph when Ron Santo singled in the tie-breaking run in the 11th. Dick Farrell was the loser in relief.

Norm Larker, Charlie Neal, Tommy Davis, Ron Fairly and Drysdale homered for the Dodgers to give them 46 for the season. No other team is even close. The Dodgers also made an error, their 42nd of the season. That's also the most.

After a homer by Milwaukee's Lee Maye in the top of the ninth had tied the score at 8-8, Braves pitcher Ron Piche walked pinch hitter Maltby Aloi with the bases loaded in the bottom half of the inning to give the Giants the series, two games to one. Earlier, Ed Matthews of the Braves, Orlando Cepeda and Jimmy Davenport of the Giants, had homered.

Rookie pitcher Ken Hunt gave up four hits and one run in seven innings and doubled home a run himself as he registered his third victory in four decisions for Cincinnati. Bob Friend, a four-game winner, was the loser for Pittsburgh.

Run-scoring singles by Clay Dalrymple and Lee Walls snapped a 4-4 tie and gave the Phillies their second straight victory over the Cardinals. Chris Short, in relief was the winner and Lindy McDaniel was charged with the loss.

Doug Sanders Captures Texas Meet

FORT WORTH, Tex. (AP) — Doug Sanders is $7,500 richer and sporting a Colonial National Invitational golf title today.

Sanders, a five-tournament winner in his relatively brief professional career, edged Australian Kel Nagle by one shot. Nagle toured the 7,041-yard Colonial course in 67 strokes to climb from a three-way tie for ninth into the runner-up slot. He picked up $3,500 for second place.

Billy Casper, the chunky veteran from Apple Valley, Calif., captured third place with 283 and collected $2,500.

Gene Littler and Arnold Palmer, who also was just a stroke off the pace, fell apart in the final round with miserable 75s.

Littler wound up tied with Don Whit for fourth at 284 and Palmer was all alone in fifth place at 285.

They earned $1,900 and $1,700 respectively.

Tied for seventh at 287 were Doug Ford and Stan Leonard, who won $1,500 each.

Gary Player of South Africa closed with a 68 for 288 and a six-way tie for ninth. He pocketed $1,158.34.

Berra's Pinch Single Gives Yanks a Win

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Yogi Berra's pinch single in the 11th inning of the opener and a six-straight single attack in the first inning of the second game gave the New York Yankees a 5-4 and 8-6 sweep of a double-header from Detroit.

The twin victories Sunday enabled the Yankees to whittle the Tigers' American League lead to 2 1/2 games.

Minnesota moved into third place, past Baltimore, edging Los Angeles 4-3 while Cleveland was taking two from the Orioles, 1-0 in 15 innings and 6-4. Chicago and Kansas City split a twin bill, the White Sox winning the first game 6-1 and the A's taking the second 5-3. Washington defeated the Boston Red Sox twice, 3-0 and 2-1.

In the National League, San Francisco's Giants opened up a full-game lead on Los Angeles, defeating Milwaukee 8-7 while the Chicago Cubs were heating the Dodgers 10-8 in 11 innings. Cincinnati downed Pittsburgh 4-1 and Philadelphia defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 6-4.

Washington's sweep gave the Senators the series from the Red Sox, three games to one. McClain yielded five hits for his fourth victory. Daniels pitched a three-hitter for his second triumph.

McClain, picked up in the minor league draft for $25,000, retired the first 16 batters as he became the first Washington pitcher to win four games. He scored what proved to be the winning run himself in the third inning. He doubled off Billy Muffett and came around on Billy Klaus' single and an infield out.

Yogi Berra's bases loaded single in the 11th inning of the first game and a five-run first inning in the second game gave the New York Yankees a 5-4 and 8-6 sweep of a doubleheader with Detroit. Jim Coates, in relief, was credited with both victories.

Detroit, trailing 4-1, tied the first game score in the ninth, scoring three runs but in the 11th, Mickey Mantle singled and scored the winning run on Berra's pinch hit.

In the second game the first six Yankees to face Jim Bunning singled, providing the winners with a 5-0 lead. Detroit made it close on homers by Rocky Colapinto, Dick Brown and Charley Maxwell.

A throwing error by Baltimore shortstop Jerry Adair provided the Indians with an unearned run in the 15th inning to end the longest game in the major leagues this season. Willie Kirkland's three-run homer won the second game for Cleveland.

The White Sox and Athletics traded victories on two-run homers. In the first game, Luis Aparicio, Wes Covington and Jim Landis each homered with a man on base to help Bob Shaw register his third victory. In the nightcap, catcher Joe Pignatano homered with a mate aboard to give Joe Nuxhall his first A's victory.

Bob Allison's sacrifice fly scored the winning run in the eighth after the Twins had scored the tying run on a bunt, two fielder's choices, a walk and three errors.

Dudley of the Red team was the leading ground gainer with 83 net yards, but most of this was picked up on a 72-yard touchdown gallop.

Fred Marshall flipped a 19-yard pass to end Jim John for another Red score and McKinney climbed over from the on for the third touchdown. Statistics were almost even, just as they were in the first Red-White game in Fayetteville a week ago, when the Red beat the White 34-26 in overtime.

Travs Win One, Ahead on Another

By ROSS M. HAGEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

If one man can be singled out for the amazing showing of the Chattanooga Lookouts in the Southern Association this spring that man would have to be veteran pitcher Warren Hacker.

The 36-year-old former national leaguer won two games Sunday as Chattanooga pulled into a first-place tie with Birmingham by defeating Shreveport, 1-0 and 6-5. The performance would have boosted the Lookouts back into first place—they were there in much of the early going—if Birmingham had not buried Macon 10-3. As it was, Chattanooga slipped by second-place Atlanta although the Crackers beat Mobile 2-0.

Little Rock, in fourth place three games off the pace, outlasted Nashville 8-7 in 11 innings, and was leading 4-1 in the nightcap when the game was suspended by a 7 p.m. curfew. The contest will be completed during a July 4 series in Little Rock.

Porkers Give Fans a Treat Offensively

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Arkansas Razorback football fans have a long, hot summer of expectation ahead of them after Saturday night's spring-practice ending intra-squad game in War Memorial Stadium here.

Quarterback Billy Moore ran for three touchdowns and passed for a fourth to lead the White team to a 30-22 victory over the Reds in an exciting offensive show. Now Porker fans can't wait to see him—and the rest of the 1961 Hogs—in action against Southwest Conference foes next fall.

The game was highlighted by Moore's running, Paul Dudley's kick returns, the place-kicking of Tom McNelly and Jim Grizzle and the fullbacking of Jim Worthington, Frank Blew and Jesse Branch.

These assets will be added to the solid quarterbacking of George McKinney, the brilliant running of halfback Lance Alworth, and the pass-catching perfection of all-SWC end Jimmy Collier when the Hogs take the field next September.

Broyles winds up with four solid fullbacks when at the beginning of spring practice, he was afraid he might not have any. Billy Joe Moody, whose strength may lie in defense, is on the fullback list with Worthington, Blew and Branch.

McNelly and Grizzle threaten to beat out Mickey (Slow Toe) Cissell for the place-kicking chores. Cissell was the team's high scorer last year and won the Rice and Texas games with late boots. McNelly and Grizzle each kicked a long field goal Saturday night and Cissell wasn't used in that capacity.

Moore ran 1, 3 and 10 yards for touchdowns and passed 13 yards to halfback Darrell Williams for another six-pointer. He completed 6 of 8 passes for 64 yards and picked up 79 yards rushing.

Dudley of the Red team was the leading ground gainer with 83 net yards, but most of this was picked up on a 72-yard touchdown gallop.

Fred Marshall flipped a 19-yard pass to end Jim John for another Red score and McKinney climbed over from the on for the third touchdown. Statistics were almost even, just as they were in the first Red-White game in Fayetteville a week ago, when the Red beat the White 34-26 in overtime.
